

Hasami

– the center of daily tableware –

The low mountains are ranging covered by fresh greenery. The local road brings us to the small town, Hasami. It is a town with a tradition going back more than 400 years producing daily tableware to meet each age's needs.

Hizen-district, where Hasami town located in, is the birthplace of porcelain production in Japan. The rich nature yield high quality clay for pottery and geographical advantage near to Continent of Asia made this district remarkable in Japanese pottery history and still now.

Within this district, there are many celebrated pottery, such as Arita, but Hasami is known as daily use tableware in a mass-producing. The artisans have respect to their predecessors' works and spiritual climate of keep creating new and useful products in our lifestyles from the old time till today.

ARTISAN

– Collaboration with Traditional Technique –

KINTO

<http://www.kinto.co.jp/en>
sales-intl@kinto.co.jp

ARTISAN – Enrich Your Table –

This tableware series are designed to fit your modern lifestyles with using traditional hand craft techniques.

SIMPLE SHAPES

Full of small techniques backed up by long history to bring you the comfortableness of use.

EARTH – DEVIDED GLAZING –

The combination of gentle colors for outside and inside.

LOCUS – HAND PLANE –

Each pieces has unique and warm texture on the surface.

GRAPHICS – DECAL WORKS –

Hand-writing graphic designs of botanical and geometrical.